1. The "godeckte" cruiser [redacted] for which plans are being drawn up at the Wissenschaftlich-Technisches Büro at Warnemünde is a modification of the former 6,000 ton German cruiser; it is being reinforced with stronger armor-plating, hence the term "godeckt".
2. The cruisers are being fitted with turbine engines as the Russians are not in a position to supply M.A.N. 22 - 2,400 h.p. engines.
3. The Warnemünde Buro is responsible for the plans of the ships only; they are to be constructed in Russian shipyards.
